CONTRA COSTA CAMERA CLUB ED NIGHT

Pictures at an Eggs-hibition

MARK & CATHY PEMBERTON

Sponsored by
Contra Costa Camera Club

The Winslow Center
2590 Pleasant Hill Rd.
Pleasant Hill

7:15 pm

February 27

Mark and Cathy Pemberton are local photographers who normally focus on nature and wildlife subjects as well as environmental issues. Their travels have taken them to Africa, Iceland, Hudson Bay, the American Southwest and many more locales. They have taken special interest in the poaching of ivory in Africa and the plight of the polar bears around Hudson Bay. Mark and Cathy have given numerous talks to local organizations about their experiences and observations on environmental topics.

Pictures at an Eggs-hibition is a bit of a detour photographically and was inspired by the amazing egg art created by Mark's mother. According to Mark, "Eggs hold an almost mystical place in the psyche of most cultures and we wanted to explore this simple but interesting subject. The photographs are a study of shape, shadow, light and texture. They are fun to photograph because of their simplicity but also because of the creative possibilities they present."

"In our presentation we will share our collection of images and show how they were created. As we discovered during our year-long project, eggs can be an incredible tool for learning the basics of lighting. We will demonstrate most of the techniques used in portrait photography in an easy to comprehend way."

Visitors are Welcome

A $10 donation from guests outside of the Contra Costa Camera Club is requested
