"It's one thing to make a picture of what a person looks like, it's another thing to make a portrait of who they are."

— Paul Caponigro

Born in Boston in 1932, Paul Caponigro is renowned as one of America's most significant master photographers.

Richard Martin Workshops - May 11 & 15

The Marin Photo Club is excited to announce the return of Richard Martin to Marin for the purpose of presenting two distinct day-long classroom workshops on May 11 and May 15.

Location: Bay Model Visitor Center classroom, Sausalito
2100 Bridgeway, Sausalito, CA 94965

Dates: Friday, May 11 - Workshop #1 - Picture Design: The Art of Composition

Tuesday, May 15 - Workshop #2 - The Photographer's Eye: Visual Awareness & Color Interactions

Time: 8:00 AM - 8:30 AM Registration & Light Refreshments
8:30 AM - 12:00 PM Morning session
12:00 PM - 12:45 PM Lunch (bring your own lunch)
12:45 PM - 3:30 PM Afternoon Session

Cost: $150 per workshop (refer to registration form on next page)

Workshop #1 - Picture Design: The Art of Composition

This full-day seminar is for photographers who want to better understand the elements of composition. We will explore the fundamentals of why and how photographs and all two-dimensional visual images work. The seminar also highlights the building blocks of design with exercises to develop your eye and improve your ability to combine various graphic elements into your photographs. We will also explore the value of play and its role in breaking away from conventional ways of seeing and thinking.

Workshop #2 - The Photographer's Eye: Visual Awareness & Color Interactions

This full-day seminar is for photographers who want to move beyond the technical aspects of photography and better understand why skills such as visual awareness and design are key to making a good photograph. We will also explore color interaction and how it is continually influenced and modified by its surroundings.
