Yerba Buena Chapter of PSA Presents

IAN PLANT

THE "UNSEEING"

Taking Photos with Attitude

In an all-day seminar, world-renowned globe-trotter Ian Plant will inspire us with his images of the beauties of Earth and teach us how to see through the eyes of a dedicated photographer.

Date / Time: Saturday, June 23 / 9:00 AM - 4:30 PM

Location: Andrew Carnegie Lecture Hall
San Leandro Library
300 Estudillo Ave., San Leandro

Registration Fee: $55 for PSA Members / $60 for non-members
Additional details can be found on Registration Form (PayPal available)

Whether hanging over the rim of an active volcano, braving the elements to photograph critically-endangered species, or trekking deep into the wilderness to places most people will never see, world-renowned professional photographer Ian Plant travels the globe seeking out amazing places and subjects in his never-ending quest to capture the beauty of our world with his camera. Known for his inspiring images and single-minded dedication to creating the perfect photo, Ian has reached hundreds of thousands of people around the world in his mission to inspire and educate others in the art of photography. Ian is a frequent contributor to many leading photo magazines, Managing Editor of Outdoor Photography Guide, a Tamron Image Master, and the author of numerous books and instructional videos. You can see his work at <https://www.ianplant.com>.

SEMINAR SCHEDULE

Description - Inspiring photos are made when the photographer compels viewers to see the world in a way they never have before. Drawing lessons from his newest ebook "Unseeing," Ian will share the techniques that are at the core of his artistic process. Join Ian for this enlightening and exciting seminar as he shares his insights about the creative use of composition, story-telling, and light to make photos that attract attention and never let go.

This all-day seminar will commence at 9:00 am with a mid- morning break. Lunch, on your own, will be from 12:00 - 1:30 pm, and there will be a mid-afternoon break.

N4C Mission Statement

To promote a spirit of voluntary cooperation among the camera clubs of Northern California. To sustain and increase an interest in the science and art of photography among photographers of said area. To promote social and educational programs for the benefit of member clubs. To create and maintain a representative body which will serve the best interests of all member clubs and groups and attempt to provide workable solutions to their individual and collective problems. To provide services and facilities for the use and benefit of the member clubs.
